PEOPLE - GlycoForm makes appointment:

David Scales has been named chief executive officer of GlycoForm (UK), effective in July. He will take over from Michael Short. Mr Scales has more than 20 years' experience in large pharmaceutical companies, having held a senior international position in R&D at Glaxo Wellcome. He moved into the biotechnology sector in 2000, working as R&D director for Strakan (now ProStrakan), Charterhouse Therapeutics and Antisoma, before becoming CEO of Cerogenix.
